Introduction to Improvisation

Want to have the time of your life? Come learn the basics of improvisational theater. Discover how to actively listen, to use your own life to create stories, and to avoid common thoughts and communication patterns. The class will focus on the fundamental principles of improvisation with emphasis on scene building skills and having fun. Maximum 14 students - Sundays 6:30-9:30 PM - 1/24 - 3/21 Cost of semester: $200

Intermediate Improvisation

This class continues work on the fundamental principles of improvisation while introducing more short-form improv games and long-form formats. The class will focus on concepts such as Status, Tilt and Re-incorporation and explore using the environment and non-linear narrative. Emphasis on character work and playing with commitment. Performance at end of class. Prerequisite - Intro to Improvisation.

Maximum 12 students - Mondays 7:00-10:00 PM - 1/25 - 3/22 Class show: 3/23 Cost of semester: $200
