

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS!

November 2018

Dear Friend of Playhouse on Park,

Thank you for all that you have done to make Playhouse a vibrant gem! Co-Artistic Directors Sean Harris and Darlene Zoller have shared that the theme woven through this season is bravery. As a supporter of Playhouse, you appreciate that bravery is not only the theme this season, but has been very much the story of Playhouse over the last nine years.

It took bravery for our three founders to take over the space formerly held by a community theater and turn their vision for an unexpected and pleasant experience in an intimate setting with professional actors, into reality. It took bravery for you too to try out Playhouse when you had and still have other alternatives. What you experienced at Playhouse inspired you to support our work so that the vibrant gem that is Playhouse can survive and thrive.

As we near our 10th anniversary, we are asking you to join us by making a bold, brave gift to ensure that Playhouse can thrive. We need your help now more than ever. We have seen our ups and downs with shows that have sold out (fittingly, In The Heights), to shows that have frustratingly undersold despite stellar reviews. We have endured a poorly attended season as the nation processed the unprecedented outcome of a presidential election and our share of inclement weather that has dampened ticket sales.

One thing that has not wavered is our belief that “the show must go on” — unique shows that are often not seen in our region, or not seen in the way that only Playhouse can present them. We have always found a way to sustain our theater and you have been a big part of the solution. Last year your gift(s) allowed us to continue to bring innovative theater right to our area. Can you lead the way again with a brave gift this year in honor of our upcoming 10th anniversary?

Your gift will mean a flawless season of mainstage plays, educational theater for our youngest neighbors, unique opportunities to propel emerging playwrights, hilarious comedy nights and more. Your gift is also a sign of your support for intimate, innovative theater right in our region.

Thank you for considering a bold, brave gift to honor Playhouse’s work as we approach our 10th anniversary.
