Ms. Holmes and Ms. Watson - Apt. 2B

Written By Kate Hamill

Directed by Kelly O'Donnell

About the Show

An irreverent, darkly comic, modern take on Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's famous sleuth and sidekick, this fast-paced romp re-examines the world's most famous detective story with a bold new feminist lens. In this highly theatrical, small-cast escapade, oddball female roommates Sherlock (yes, it's also a girl's name—wait, is it a girl's name? Is it even a name?) Holmes & Joan Watson join forces to emerge from pandemic fog as a deeply codependent, quasi-dysfunctional Odd Couple adventure duo—solving mysteries and kicking butts, until they come face to face with a villain who seems to have all of the answers.

"Apt. 2B is sharp, playful, and moves at a rapid-fire pace... [It] brings poignancy and humor to the stories of Sherlock Holmes...." - Portland Monthly

Why Now?

Kate Hamill's Ms Holmes and Ms Weston - Apt. 2B is an irreverent, darkly comedic, genderbent take on Sir Arthur Doyle's famous sleuth and sidekick. Set a year into the pandemic, our famous, eccentric protagonist, Sherlock Holmes, meets Joan Watson, an American millennial who's just jumped the pond. The detective immediately takes an interest in her and sweeps her into her crime solving escapades. As the two crime-solving women grow closer and the stakes grow higher, Watson will eventually have to ask if she's willing to let down her guard to ride with Sherlock, or if the risk is simply not worth it. Through a feminist lens, this two-act play intricately and hilariously explores gender dynamics, post-Covid normalcy (and what that means), empathy versus apathy, and the true meaning of friendship.

Kate Hamill is famous for rewriting classic stories through the eyes of modern-day women as stage plays; another notable adaptation is her take on Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice, which Playhouse on Park produced in 2020 to rave reviews and critical acclaim. Both of Hamill's works align with our desire to celebrate women in theatre. Simultaneously, this work bravely, yet gently dives into processing the collective societal experience of going through a pandemic and not recognizing the world, or even ourselves, in Covid's aftermath. But Hamill tastefully helps the audience digest our own post-pandemic world through the world of this post-modern version of a literary classic in a way that is escapist, funny, and uplifting.

Not only does Playhouse on Park have the exciting opportunity to produce Kate Hamill's plays again, but we have the honor of premiering Ms Holmes and Ms Weston - Apt. 2B for the first time in New England; this play has been produced only a couple of times, and is a brand-new work!

Every funder, sponsor, patron, member of the board, and staff member who helps us produce art that can enact change is more than greatly appreciated. Our production of Ms Holmes and Ms Weston - Apt. 2B can be how our community starts the conversation.

Thank you for your consideration in supporting this production. Please reach out with questions or if further information is needed.

Playhouse Theatre Group Inc. General Information

Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. (PTG) is the parent company of Playhouse on Park, Playhouse Theatre Academy, the Connecticut Shakespeare Festival, and stop/time dance company. In 2022, Playhouse on Park entered its 14th season, despite incredible challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. As we rebuild our audience back to its pre-pandemic numbers, we're still committed to our mission of providing high-quality, accessible live theatre at affordable costs.

Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. also manages Playhouse Theatre Academy, which offers theatre-educational programming for all ages. Year-round classes and programs are taught in our locations in Hartford and Simsbury. We also offer our Literature Alive Field Trip program, through which students of all grade levels can experience a matinee performance as a part of their school day.

PTG has an annual operating budget of $1.8m. During pre-covid times, approximately 50% of our operating budget came from earned revenue and the other 50% from raised revenue. Raised revenue includes individual donations, grants, sponsorship, advertising, and fundraising events and activities. Throughout Covid, earned revenue dramatically decreased and the need for raised funds increased tremendously. As audiences slowly return, and covid related expenses are still being incurred we still look to raise approximately 70% of our operating budget. Support for individual productions, such as Ms. Holmes and Ms. Watson - Apt. 2B, is an incredible help.

In addition to our regular ticket pricing, we offer 3 Preview performances where tickets are approximately 50% below the regular show costs. We also offer deeply discounted tickets through our Lunch Time Special and Student Rush tickets. A recent survey told us that 23% of our audience members come from a household with an annual income of less than $60,000 – keeping ticket prices low is crucial to ensuring all members of our community have access to professional live theatre.

History

Playhouse on Park is managed under the direction of Playhouse Theatre Group, Inc. and was founded by Tracy Flater, Darlene Zoller, and Sean Harris. Playhouse on Park opened its doors in the fall of 2009 and, with the hard work and generosity of countless volunteers, donors and our first audiences, presented a full season of plays, musicals, comedy nights, improv, children's shows, and dance showcases. Now, in its 14th Season, Playhouse on Park is West Hartford's own renowned professional theatre, offering a wide range of thought-provoking, inspiring, and entertaining productions that leave audiences often smiling, sometimes crying, and always talking about what they've just experienced. We also have a professional dance company in-residence: stop/time dance theater, that presents a full-scale production as part of our Main Stage series.
